CCNC Author Training Workshops

Introductory Author Training

Introduction to conducting reviews

- Importance of systematic reviews
- Introduction to Cochrane
- Overview of the systematic review process

Insight into process and importance

Standard Author Training

Basic skills to start a review, including

- Question and protocol
- Quality assessment
- Data extraction
- Statistical analysis

Undertake a Cochrane review

Advanced Author Training

Technical aspects of conduct, analysis, and interpretation

- Variety of topics possible
- Opportunity to consult with an expert

Detailed training for authors